BREAKING THE SILENCE AND CLEARING THE AIR

NEXION 435

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

To whom it may concern, we among the blood ranks of the Noctulian Blood Covenant have undergone a major shift; not only in our newfound objectives but also in our change of leadership.

There has been feedback from both sides of the spectrum, some positive, some negative, and ultimately some skeptical and questioning the sudden emergence of nexion 435. We assure you that we hear you and we will answer any inquiries to the best of our proficiency within this announcement.

In recent times we have unveiled and discovered the scandalous acts done by the hands of the former leader and associate of the Noctulian Blood Covenant via the workings and investigation conducted by the Temple of Them.

Nero, now unveiled as “Samuel Duane Orellana” was outed as a registered sex offender in his state of Los Angeles, California. With this information, we have ultimately decided to entirely excommunicate Nero from the Noctulian Blood Covenant from its ranks.

We would like to make it clear and concise that Samuel is no longer a part of Nexion 435 and its works, though he may differ and attempt to conduct more work under our banner - Any assertions otherwise by him and by others’ claims are utterly deceitful, and most of all incorrect.

I, Blood Priest Skorge, am the newfound leader of the Noctulian Blood Covenant and it will persist to remain that way.

THE INVESTIGATION OF NERO

Sourced from Temple of Them, NSK, 9AO.

The investigation into Noctulian Blood Covenant 435/NXS435 has concluded. The investigation has produced an outcome of a high probability that Nachtferat of NBC 435 is Nero, whose real name is Samuel Duane Orellana, a convicted child sex offender. This was concluded via evidence 1 and 2 posted below, in addition to a voice analysis of Nachtferat that was confirmed as a match to Nero once a recent interview he participated in (which has now been removed) was shown to someone who has spoken at length with Nero before, prior to learning of his abhorrent behavior.

Temple of Them spoke with Noctulian Blood Covenant 435 and requested verification of Nachtferat's identity to rule him out as Nero, but he unfortunately opted not to until TOT dropped support of 435's publication, but by then we had already achieved a high probability that Nachtferat was Nero/Samuel Duane Orellana. When Temple of Them then asked Nachtferat if their voice was the same as Nero's he responded by accusing TOT of lying and told them that he and Noctulian Blood Covenant 435 were leaving the internet.

Evidence 1 reveals that Orellana was incarcerated but a quick search on the CIRIS database reveals he no longer is.

Evidence 2 is comprised of two private emails where Nero/Orellana informs the other individual that he is working on his nexion Noctulian Blood Covenant.

Note: In relation to Evidence 2, the other individual involved in the email correspondence was unaware of Nero's activities at the time.

Final note: an in depth analysis of Nero's syntax revealed that Crown of Paymon (of Bathorian Covenant) is also one of his nyms. While many would say that analyzing syntax is not a legitimate means of determining identity, it should be remembered that Theodore John Kaczynski was caught by forensic linguist James Fitzgerald who analyzed Kaczynski's verb transposition, tone, vocabulary etc.

Agios been awhile... I've been working on my successful nexion noctulian blood covenant. I do not seek to keep contact with dg... he is sloppy and spreads rumors out of jealousy.. be careful with him. Anyways, I want to keep contact with you and only you. Please feel free to look at our website at noctulianbloodcovenant.com
For now, take care brother

We are still in California, though I'd rather not specify where.
We have a solid stance against anyone who would jeopardize opsec. And we are firmly anti SF. We recently began working with the ToB . That is what members who moved on with it after the Sutter incident. We all stay extremely vague. No one gives names or addresses and "illegal" activity is not discussed in any format which would jeopardize opsec.
Right now we are training new members who aspire to join the ToB and NBC. Soon we will be working on publishing a few manuscripts such as liber333. Others in the ToB believed it was a good way to get more prospects and further the noctulian agenda.

REVIEW OF EVIDENCE #1

As seen above, there is quite a bit of evidence against Samuel, unequivocal evidence at that. Ultimately it seems Samuel will continue to deny any of these allegations and evidence brought forward about him.

His argument in his words against these claims is that it's merely just an “attack of his character” and that the populace is simply just “jealous of him”.

Samuel's delusion goes quite deep with his assertive claims and lies. He ultimately has seemed to convince himself that he hasn't done anything wrong and that this is simply just Black Propaganda.

Furthermore, his wife also seems to come to his rescue quite often, which she often seems to always have done. From my former association with Samuel, I've come to learn a lot about his character and his lifestyle -

Such as the fact he doesn't work, and that he ultimately relies on his wife whom he claims to be a lawyer to pay for his living expenses.

Samuel is also on house arrest and has been for some time now. He claims to live a rough lifestyle, one that isn't for the weak, but ultimately he just sits around all day playing video games. So much for a leader....

Samuel was also known to steal people's work, and blatantly plagiarize both the Tempel ov Blood and Chloe's WSA 352s work. There are some accounts as well of his stealing and not crediting others' works.

In conclusion, Samuel is degenerative in nature and is most definitely not the Sinister prodigy he claims to be in his writings, and we among the new beginnings of the Noctulian Blood Covenant are glad to be rid of him once and for all.

EVIDENCE #2

Blood Prophet Paymon's account of Nero
An interview and investigation conducted by Nexion 435

BPS: How did you meet Nero?

BPP: Nero had an X account under the NBC name and was following me for some time - We began talking as he had noticed a piece or two I posted regarding the Noctulian Way and began conversing about said path and the ToB (It is important to mention his name was not attatched to the account but he provided me with an email under his name which I was told was used by the "whole" nexion as Nero was supposedly stepping back due to what I was told were false allegations spread by "Dark Gnosis"). Shortly after I was asked to provide some pieces of work as a prospective member which led to him "fast-tracking" me as a full initiate of Nexion 435 under the false pretenses strung along by my naivety that NBC was a legitimate sanctioned ToB Nexion - The only public one as "The OG's have gone underground" but were supposedly in support of the Nexion.

BPS: How would you describe the Noctulian Blood Covenant under Nero's leadership?

BPP: regarding his "leadership", there was never really any at all - Sporadic and brief contact via Email with little to no guidance bearing none of the qualities of a leader I have seen and been associated with at all.

BPS: When did you start having skepticism or distrust in Nero?

BPP: As for the distrust I gained that only grew after I was told early on to not contact certain person/s, those being people who were "out to spread lies" about Nero with the supposed goal of taking me away from the Nexion (Once again this was, and as you know yourself, a common theme of "slander" spread by D.G and others). Unfortunately for Mr Ordellena Noctulius nor Vindex could save his doused mind's trickery as I was presented one day with his US Jail/Prison Doxx which of course was nothing but another smear and slander campaign against him designed to "test" me... After an hour or so of prying for a clear answer and explanation I was told repeatedly that he had no clue who the Doxx was of followed by nervous skirting around any pressing questions I had about the matter. I gave an ultimatum after 2/3 hours of his pathetic attempt to hide his "sinister deed" conveying that it should be rather easy to prove his innocence and if he continued his attempts of deflection and denial that I would challenge him under the code of the Sinister Tradition and leave the Nexion; After I offered this to him I was blocked and an "essay" was written regarding my so called defection as I "could not handle Noctulian training", when In reality he could not handle the heat of being found out after several months of lies about himself and others who I later became associated with (such as yourself which he claimed prior to such that you and others were feds, rats etc.) further learning more about his heinous offence/s.

BPS: And what did you do upon finding him out?

BPP: Upon the full realisation of what he had done and his cowardly attempt to blame the crime on others I, in all honesty, wanted to smash his tweaker head in and felt somewhat embarrassed about my time within 435 under Nero but what can one expect from a reprobate tweaker who's only gnosis seems to be attacking vulnerable children because "thatz sinistah mayn" ....

WHERES NERO?

Nero is still very active on socials such as Twitter, though his presence is unknown outside of it. This is probably due to the fact he is currently under federal surveillance and heat, in which he himself exclaimed to be.

Shown below is the current active account of Samuel.

CONCLUDING

In conclusion, this investigation and documentation not only expose Samuel of his antics but also put the message out there that Samuel is no longer a part of Nexion 435.

We aim to move past this and inaugurate ourselves and as well ultimately align ourselves with the sinister way and its teachings. We are a legitimate traditional nexion dedicated to the dark gods and the Vampyric praxis which aligns with the Sinister Tradition, and we plan to stay that way.
